Unite Humanity, unite --
 one fellowship on earth!
 Too long we turned our back to peace,
 too long life had no worth.
 The sun, the earth and you are made,
 to share, to wonder, not to hate.
 Draw we not hope with our first breath ?
 Hope knows no gun, no death.

Come brothers from the desert heat,
 and from the icy shore,
 let us together build one world,
 and marching feet no more.
 One world, one peace where you with me
 can meet as brothers proud and free.
 Is not the sun, the earth, the air
 for you and me to share.

Your child, my child, is it not born and nursed in love to live;
 not handed down from Mount Sinai one law: Receive to give ?
 Come let us vow: Your son, my son
 no longer shall embrace the gun.
 Behold, one light shines from above -- one dignity, one love !
